

Development Education Project (DEP) has a new and exciting programme of Internships available for three months from September – December 2011.

1. DEP Bookshop

(sales and associated activity, bookclub, storytelling and creative writing)

2. Marketing and Outreach (promotion and profile of DEP)

3. Volunteer Coordinator (developing events volunteers team)

The Internships require individuals who have passion and commitment and a keen interest in global current affairs as well as the ability to think creatively and a willingness to find out more and pass on learning to others.

The Internship is a great opportunity for a graduate to get hands on experience, develop skills and knowledge and enhance your career goals.

Based in the DEP offices in Manchester the Interns will run from September to December. The post is not salaried but expenses such as lunch and travel are available.
