ARTS

Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation

Aims/priorities: The Andrew Lloyd Webber Foundation's principle objectives are to promote the arts, culture and heritage for the public benefit. Funding is available to not-for-profit organisations, including charities, companies and community trusts, for projects in the areas of culture and the arts that make a real and ongoing difference to people's lives in the UK. Priority will be given to projects that enable people to develop skills and careers in heritage and in all areas of the performing arts (music, dance and drama) but other areas will be considered. For the purposes of funding:

- Real means an appreciable and significant difference. For example, something that affects one person's life to a great extent, possibly leading to a significantly improved probability that the person will be involved in the Arts on an ongoing basis (i.e., by having a career in the Arts) and something that affects many people's lives, (i.e., through improved access to the Arts)
- Difference implies that the funding award contributes to something that would not otherwise happen, without the making of such awards. This might (but need not necessarily) include the overcoming of special difficulties/obstacles
- Ongoing refers to something that is going to have a long-term benefit and an ongoing effect on people's lives, rather than 'an effect that is ephemeral'

Who can apply? Not-for-profit organisations, including charities, companies and community trusts, based and operating within the UK, are eligible to apply.

Grant amount: Unlock grants up to £5,000, Enhance grants up to £10,000, Empower grants up to £25,000. It is expected that most applicants would have secured a significant proportion of funding prior to sending in their application.

The Arts Society

Aims/priorities: The Arts Society is a leading arts education charity with a global network of over 380 local Societies, which bring people together through a shared curiosity for the arts. All grants from The Arts Society are intended to give access to the arts to those that wouldn't normally have access to them. The Arts Society believe in Arts for All and will use our grants to make a positive contribution to people's lives through the arts. The Arts Society have identified three areas of giving that are in accordance with our charitable objectives and meet specific needs in the arts and heritage sectors.

- Young Arts – Young Arts programmes support a wide range of activities to introduce young people to and engage them in artistic experience and practice. They include: artists in residence; art lectures for students; funding visits to art galleries and museums; art exhibitions for young artists; equipment purchases; practical workshops; local Arts Week events; bursaries for individual students; and sponsorship for craft apprentices.

- Skills Development – This area is about projects and programmes that further the development and training of skills in the arts, crafts and heritage. There are no age limits to this as we believe that people of all ages benefit from acquiring and honing their creative and heritage skills.
- Regional Museums, Galleries and Arts Organisations – The work of regional and local museums and galleries is important in connecting people with their local heritage and arts; yet these institutions often struggle to raise funds for projects and internships during times of budget cuts. Our grants may support special projects, displays, internship or part-time posts, training and conservation activities. Aims/priorities: The government is committed to halving the number of rough sleepers by 2022 and ending rough sleeping entirely by 2027. Whilst hostels and refuges provide a vital role in delivering temporary or emergency accommodation for rough sleepers, they are deemed unsuitable for longer-term housing. Priority will be given to proposals that will most effectively and most quickly free up space with hostels and/or refuges.
